Objective:
The Director of Communications is an appointed by the President and the executive council. The Communications Director facilitates the external communications of Student Government and represents Student Government in communications with the media and the entire student body.

Qualifications*:
- Be a full time, undergraduate member of APU as defined by the Registrar.
- Have a grade point average of at least 2.70:
  - Cumulative
  - During one full semester prior to term of office
  - Maintained throughout the term of office
- Must be prepared to hold office from Fall 2010 through Spring 2011.
- Must proclaim and adhere to the University Statement of Faith.

General Duties:
- Attend all Student Senate meetings that will be held Wednesdays from 4:30-6:30 p.m. It is the responsibility of the candidate to incorporate the Senate meeting into their class schedule.
- Serve on the committee(s) as appointed by the President and approved by the Student Senate.
- Attend and participate in Student Forums unless excused by the President.
- Keep a minimum of 15 office hours per a week
- Meet once every two weeks with the President to evaluate progress and set goals which will be written and recorded.
- Help the SGA develop constant communication with his/her respective constituency or area of responsibility.
- Attend all MANDATORY* retreats and orientations that are as follows:
  - CCLC
  - Summer Retreat/Orientation training
  - January Retreat

Note:
Because this position is an appointed position, candidate MUST submit 2 references:Employer and Azusa Pacific University Faculty/Staff.

*If candidate does not meet one of these requirements, the candidate can choose to petition the student senate to be allowed to run and hold office. Please speak to the chair of the elections committee or the director of communications.