

Leadership Imagination Questions

1. Who are two or three leaders you know and admire?
2. What are the character traits of these leaders that you admire?
3. What are the actions they take that have an impact on the people they lead/serve?
4. How are these leaders like you in personalities and behaviors?
5. How are these leaders different than you in personality and behaviors?
6. If these leaders had your personality and behaviors, how would they express these behaviors you admire?
7. If these leaders had your personality and behaviors, how would they implement the actions that have had an impact on those they lead/serve?
8. If they had your personality and behaviors, how would they communicate with their body and words in all daily activities their internal qualities and behavior choices?