

CLFM Presentation topics:

- Racial diversity and Christian Worship: How does social context affect faith and worship?
- Christians and political involvement: How should Christians view politics and government (the debate between the political platforms, i.e. which issues are Christian)?
- Rich Christians with poor neighbors “am I my brother’s keeper?”
- Christians and war: Christian response to violence
- Christian vocations: The role of career in Christian life (i.e. pursuit of wealth and financial comfort, calling, ministry-focused, etc...)
- Christians and marriage: a Christian perspective on sex, children, and fidelity
- Christians and the Civil Rights movement: race, Christianity and Civil Disobedience
- Christianity in a world of different religions: how do we relate to other religions?
- Christians in the midst of an inconvenient truth: Care for creation
- Christianity and Criminal Justice: a Christian view of the penal justice system
- Christianity and the constitution: How much should Christians be involved in government?
- Christians and church: why go to church on Sunday?
- Christians and mission: what role should mission, service and/or evangelism have in our lives?